In Loving Memory of Ms. LaChance

"You gain strength, courage & confidence by every experience in which you really stop to look fear in the face. Do the thing you think you cannot do."

-Eleanor Roosevelt

Forever in our hearts.

From the Yearbook Editor

Last year at the senior award ceremony I actually laughed to myself when Ms. Dodge said the yearbook was the most work the three editors had ever done in high school- I get it now. I can't think of a single thing that's required more time, effort, and patience than this book. But now, looking back on the year it took to make this, I'm beyond grateful that I had the chance to do this and even more grateful for those who helped. You wouldn't be reading this now if it weren't for Ms. Dodge especially. Writing this is my last contribution to the book and as corny as it is, I'm actually choking back some tears. So here it is, I hope you enjoy it now and twenty years from now and remember only the good things high school gave you.

Lydia

From the Yearbook Advisor

The 2013 yearbook season is almost over. I would like to thank everyone who helped make this yearbook a great one. Thank you ...

to our photographers, Editor-in-chief Lydia, Marisa, Kathryn and Hannah to the rookie photographer and co-editor in training Cam to Kevin, co-editor in training Jeremy, Sean, Adam, and sometimes Dave, who worked on anything to our designers, Madeleine and Aedan to senior page proofreaders, Katherine, Sara and Kitty to all the students who gave of their time and talents - there were so many this year!
to the talented Mr. Nowak for use of his incredible photographs of sports and events to our advertisers and parents for their financial support

I would like to extend a very special THANK YOU to Editor-in-chief Lydia Richards. I knew Lydia had the potential to create a great yearbook when I offered her the editor position. She was a caring, talented photographer and art student. I saw something special in Lydia. Once she accepted the challenge, she did not stop until the yearbook was submitted to the publisher for printing. I was amazed at Lydia's determination and hard work. Many days Lydia worked all alone on editing pages. It is because of her dedication and leadership that the 2013 yearbook is a great success.

I am very proud of all you have accomplished, Lydia. You grew into a great leader right before my eyes. Ms. Dodge

Mom and Dad- Thanks for everything I really do appreciate you raising me to become the person that I am today.

Eric- You are the man, you taught me a lot that has really helped me. Your stupid quotes about all the lessons you try to teach me are lame, but they've always helped because I've always listened.

The Crew- Guys, there have been so many great times I've had with all of you. From perley until now you've all cracked me up so many times, and honestly all the laughs you guys had for me have been the greatest times I've had here. But I think the greatest thing I can really say about all of my friends is that I know all of you have always had my back, and I can actually say that and mean it. As for the football team, "ya coach I got something to say"- haha. But for real I love all of you, and I'm gonna miss every minute of it. And the same goes for the basketball team, its been fun working hard everyday with all of you. Peace out.

Memories

Over all high school has been one awesome experience. I couldn't even try to get all of my memories into this box. From going to Winni with my best friend Doug, to the snowboarding trips with the rest of my bros, to my EPIC Junior year summer with the Horse Girls, and to the crazy weekends of Senior year and The Basement Days Sophomore year.

Places: East Street, Swift River, High Rock, Kev's basement, RK's Shed, Square pond, Indians Last Leap, Maudslay, Cumbies, and many more.

Kevin and Doug: I have no idea where I would be without you two. You are literally family to me and I hope that never changes. I have millions of memories with you guys and I hope we can make a couple million more.

Friends: DL, KJ, DI, MC, CP, BA, and the rest of my great friends, keep in touch I love you all I couldn't ask for a better graduating class.

2013: WE DID IT!! Mrs. LaChance, you are one of the of the most inspiring people I have ever met. I can't thank you enough. RIP

Mom and Dad: You two have provided guidance and advice that will stay with me for the rest of my life. You support every decision that I make and are always there for me when I need you. I love you both so much and that will never change. <3

Angel Sanguintin

Rafael: I don't know what I would do without you in my life. When ever I have a problem I always come to you and you always give me the best advice no matter what the situation. I love you bro and I always will no matter how apart we are!

Isabel Ayala: "My life, my world, my everything." Finding out I was pregnant with you has changed my life so much. Having a baby at a young age can be very difficult but with the help of my amazing family and close friends I know I can do it. Mama loves you with all my heart forever xoxo <3

Nicholas Cantarella: I don't know where I would be without you. You are my best friend and always will be. Thank you for being there for me through thick and thin.

Samantha: The best sister anyone could ask for. Thanks for all the help and support you're giving me. Love you always <3

Katherine Stolar

Mom: You have taught me to appreciate life and to never give up on anything and I admire you for that. Thank you for putting up with me all these years and for everything you have done for me. No one could have done it better than you, love you.

Rachel: There is never a dull moment with you and me. In the wise words of J.R.R. Tolkien. "Home is behind, the world ahead." Take those words and soar, love you.

Chelsea, Courtney, Katelyn, Kathryn, Kitty, Sara and Shannon: Serious kudos to us for still being able to stand each other after all these years. You girls are such an important part of my life and I cannot WAIT to see where we all end up. "Love you babes, don't ever change."

Nick Mammolette

Congratulations Nick,

Look at you now!!! It's hard to believe that 18 years has passed since you came into our world. Almost before you could walk, you were busting at the seams to speak your mind. You've been telling it like it is since before you turned two!!! Even so, we have always seen a strong, determined, talented, intelligent, funny, compassionate, easy-going boy who cares about others and has been a good friend to all. God blessed us with an incredible son, who has turned into a fine young man.

Wherever life takes you we'll always be with you. Your family is your foundation upon which we know, you are capable of building anything you desire. Dream big. Don't let the world around you set the boundaries. Don't let others define success in your endeavors. Don't give power to anyone unless you love them. Do what makes you happy, and don't forget to spread some of that happiness to others. Good friends are worth more than Ferraris. Your family is priceless, and ours loves you more than you'll ever know.

Love, Mom, Dad, Tatiana and Buddy

It's hard to believe that time has raced by so fast
I have so many good memories of the past
Always waiting to explore
Whether it was on a skim board or a snow board
Never wanting to slow down
Traveling from basketball courts, to soccer fields in every town
From a voice that could be heard
To why do you have to use those words

But yet I will miss our pastimes
You will soon be away
And now I wish there was another day
I'm very proud of you Kevin

THE CHANGING FACE OF CONGRESS

Total members of Congress: 535

FOR THE FIRST TIME IN 45 YEARS, a baseball player won the batting Triple Crown when Detroit's Miguel Cabrera led the American League in batting average, home runs and RBI.

AFTER 82 YEARS IN OPERATION,

Hostess Brands, the maker of Twinkies, Ding-Dongs and Wonder Bread, closed up shop. The company, which was in bankruptcy, planned to sell its assets, leaving a glimmer of hope that another company would bring back the much-loved confections. The end of Hostess shut down 33 bakeries, 565 distribution centers and 570 bakery outlets, and 18,500 jobs were lost.

PRESIDENT BARACK OBAMA, a Democrat, won re-election with 62.6 million votes – 51% of the popular vote and 332 electoral votes – over his opponent, former Massachusetts Gov. Mitt Romney. Key battleground states, such as Ohio and Florida, went for Obama, as did a majority of women and minority voters. Republicans retained control of the House of Representatives, while Democrats kept control of the Senate.

20 Questions

By the time you finish this special 20 Questions issue, you'll have a better understanding of the current state of the industry, the challenges ahead, and the solutions that are being implemented. We'll also hear from industry leaders about their vision for the future of the industry and the role of the publisher in that vision. So sit back, relax, and enjoy the ride.

As the industry continues to evolve, publishers must stay on top of the latest trends and technologies. This means investing in new tools and services that can help them better serve their readers. It also means staying up-to-date on the latest industry news and developments. Only by staying informed can publishers make the best decisions for their businesses.

One of the biggest challenges facing publishers today is the rise of digital media. While digital media has opened up new opportunities for publishers, it has also created a lot of competition. Publishers must find ways to differentiate themselves from the competition and provide unique content that cannot be found elsewhere. This may mean investing in new technologies or services, or it may mean simply focusing on the quality of the content.

Another challenge facing publishers is the changing demographics of the reading public. As the population ages, the number of people who read books is declining. Publishers must find ways to attract new readers and keep existing readers engaged. This may mean focusing on different types of books or marketing strategies. Only by understanding the needs of their readers can publishers succeed in the long run.

Despite these challenges, the publishing industry remains a vital part of our culture. It provides us with the stories, ideas, and information that shape our lives. As long as there are people who want to read, there will be a need for publishers. And as the industry continues to evolve, publishers will find new ways to thrive in a changing world.

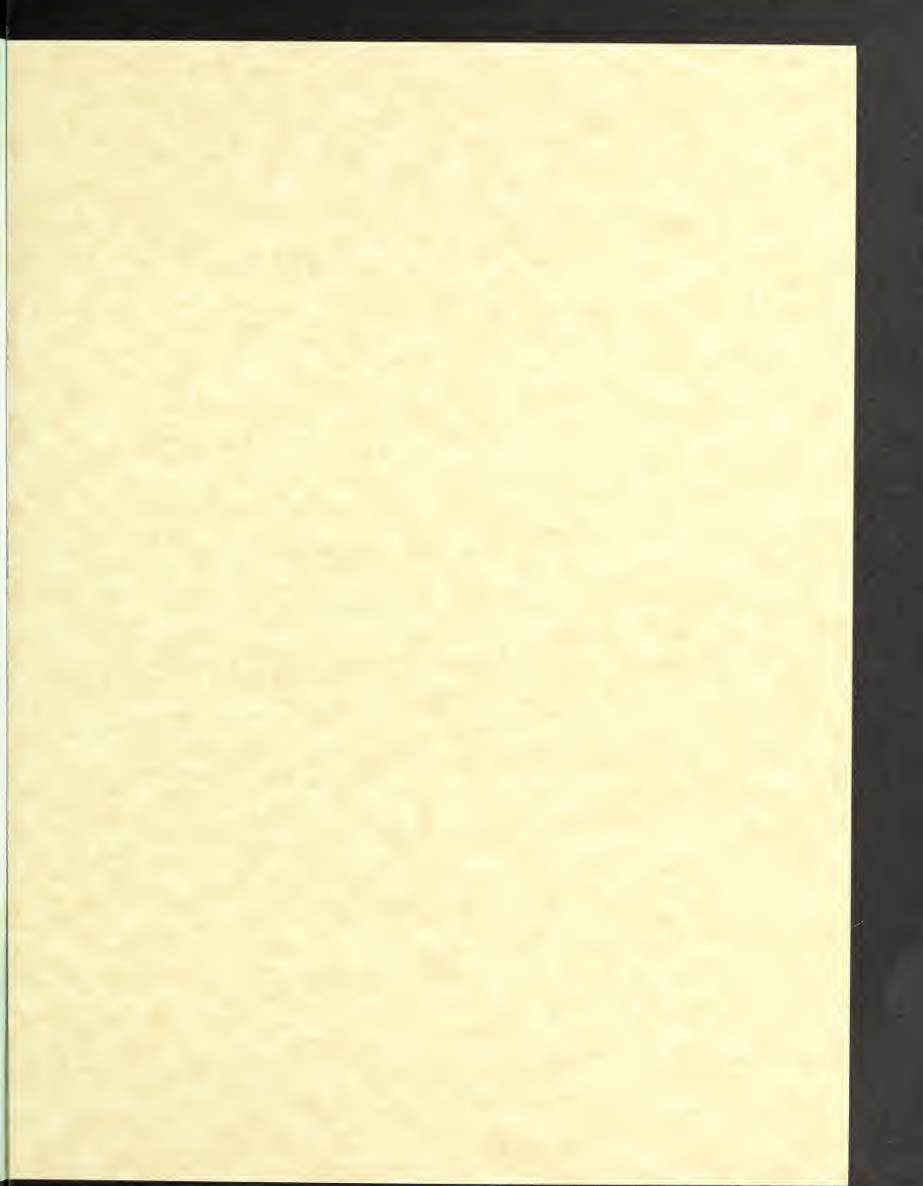

So, as you turn the pages of this special 20 Questions issue, remember that you are not just reading about the industry—you are reading about the future of the industry. And that is a very exciting prospect indeed.

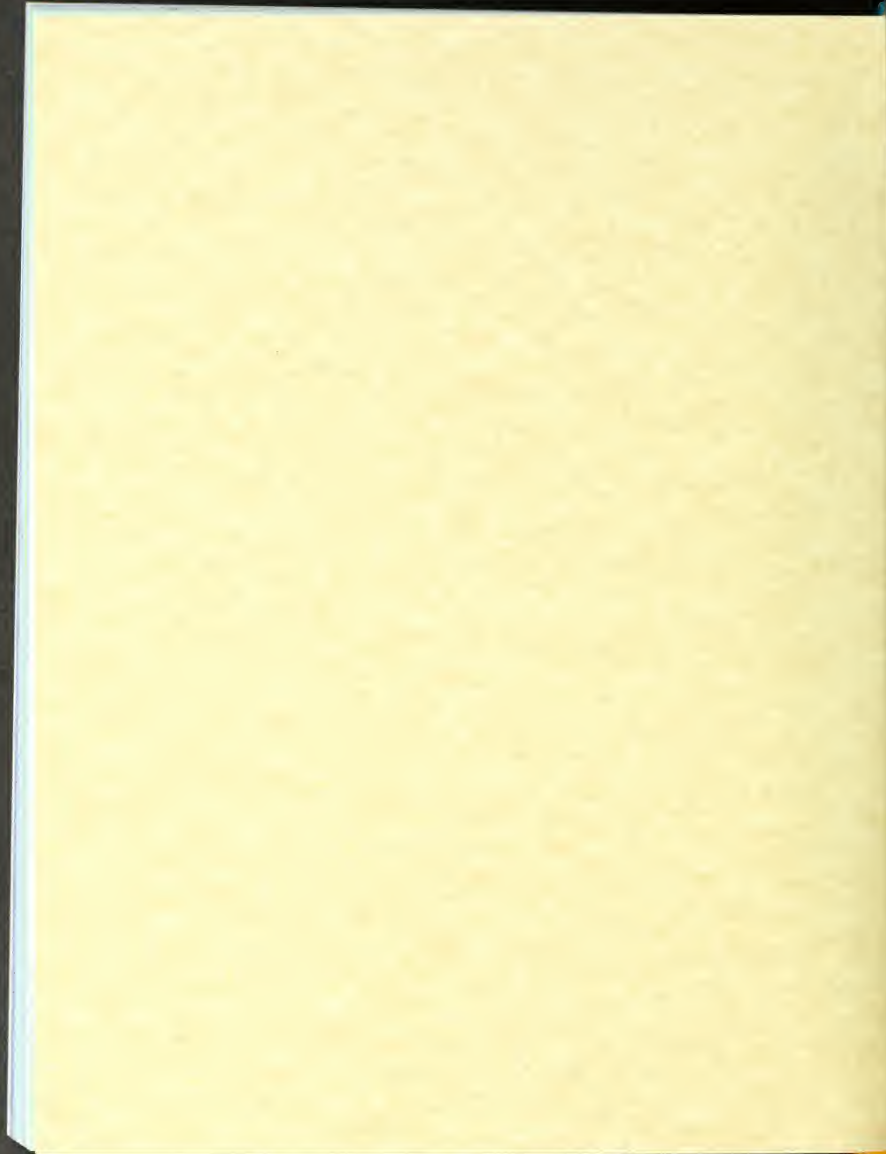

Thank you for taking the time to read this special issue. We hope you found it informative and enjoyable. And we look forward to bringing you more great content in the future.

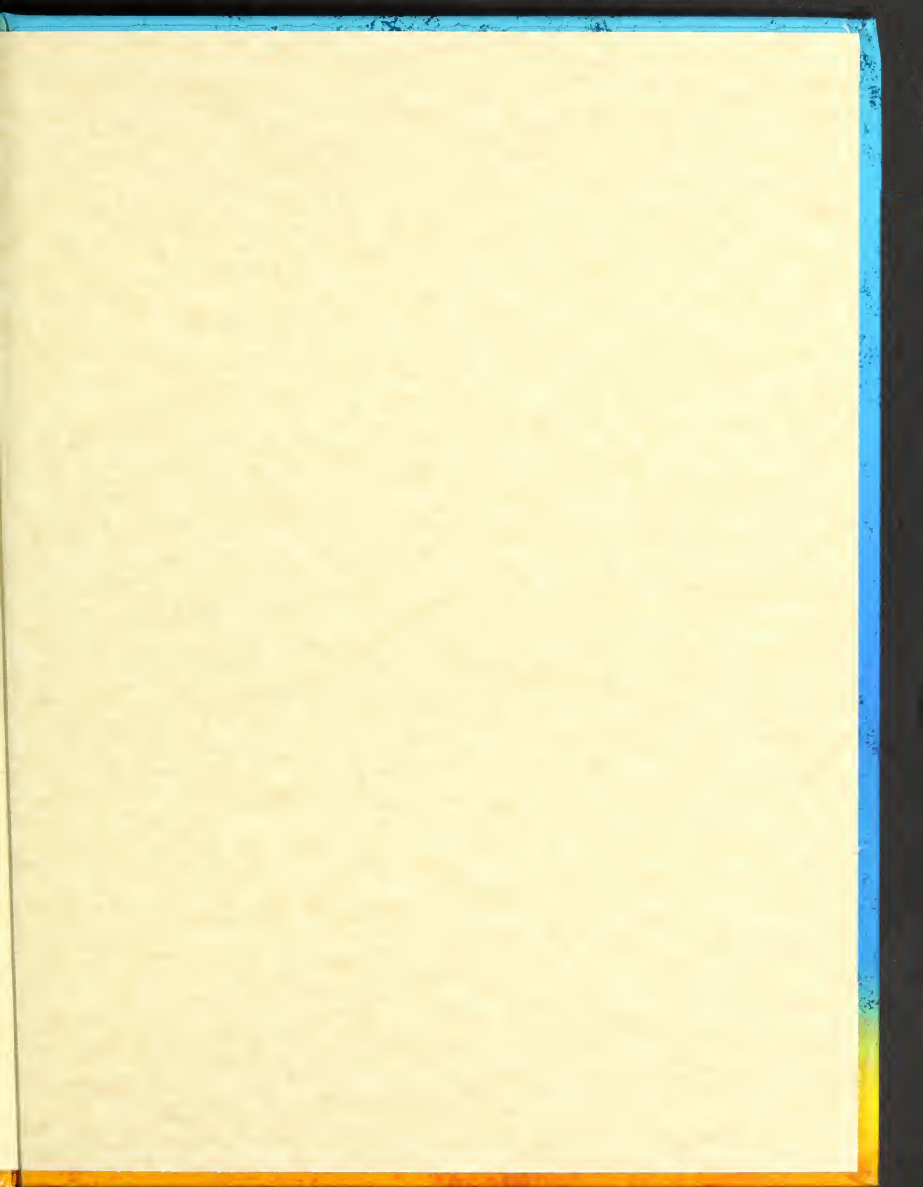

With best wishes,
The Publisher
